MEMORANDUM

TO: Todd Gerhardt, City Manager

FROM: Todd Hoffman, Park and Recreation Director

DATE: February 27, 2020

SUBJ: Recommendation Concerning Appointments to Park and Recreation Commission

On Wednesday evening, February 26, members of the Park and Recreation Commission interviewed candidates for appointment to the commission.

Commissioners who conducted the interviews included Jim Boettcher, Zoe Erpelding, Joe Scanlon and Matt Kutz. Applicants interviewed included Jess Pettingill and Mike Helland. Park and Recreation Commission incumbents Karl Tsuchiya and Haley Schubert have reapplied for their commission positions. Commissioner Meredith Petouvis is retiring from the Park and Recreation Commission after three years of service.

As of April 1, there are three open adult positions available on the Park and Recreation Commission. Upon conclusion of their discussion concerning the candidates, Commissioners Boettcher, Erpelding, Scanlon and Kutz recommended that the City Council appoint:

Park and Recreation Commission Representatives, Adult – Three positions available (3-year terms):

1. Haley Schubert
2. Karl Tsuchiya
3. Mike Helland
